TWO CRANES LIFTED SPAN

Two Huge Girders of C. N. R. Viaduct Placed on Three Flat Cars Without Mishap

Sunday morning the bridge gang were early at the work of removing the long span which crossed the Midland tracks and Cavan street, on the old Canadian National Railways, which is being taken down to be used elsewhere. Five spans and towers, we understand are to be used at Pembroke and the rest near Cochrane.

A large number of people were there to see the span lifted down, many of them having seen it put there and thought at that time that they wouldn't live to see the day when the viaduct was taken down.

The work of lifting was done by two long armed cranes. One worked from the viaduct and the other from the Midland tracks. The crane working from below had an arm long enough to be above the girder, over fifty feet above its own track level. With a crane hooked to either end the girders were raised three or four feet then swung gradually at right angles to be parallel with the tracks below, and gradually lowered to the ground. Then a fresh grip was taken and each was hoisted high enough for three flat cars to be run beneath them and carefully lowered onto them where they were secured to each other and the cars so that they will not move in transit. The girder on the north side was lowered in the forenoon and the other was lifted from its place shortly after one o'clock. They were both placed on the cars without a single hitch or mishap, showing the skill of those in charge and the men doing the work. The work was completed by three o'clock and no further work was done. It had to be done on Sunday as traffic could not be held up on a week day.

The remainder of the viaduct will be taken up by cranes working from the viaduct, removing everything as they retire and the steel will be taken to Cobourg where the track joins the main line.

Many people deplore the fact that this landmark is being taken down but the deplorable thing was the building of the line in the first place. It is a good thing that the bridge can be utilized in other localities and that the C. N. R. is doing away with the line east of here, which parallels their double track main line and is really only an unnecessary expense to be maintained. We are sorry to see it go, but believe it better for the country, taking something for the loss of our National railways and thus bring their system closer to the time when it will be a profit to the country.

TO MAKE EYESORE A BEAUTY SPOT

Rotarians Enthusiastic That Port Hope Should Be "The Prettiest Town in Canada"

The Port Hope Rotary Club are certainly working hard to make Port Hope live up to its name as "The Prettiest Town in Canada," and arrangements have been made to beautify the spot which is now an eyesore to the town, namely both sides of the Ganeraska River on Queen and Mill Streets. This is all to be levelled off and made into a spot which will be a credit to the town. Tourists travelling west and coming down the Cobourg road will be immediately attracted by the view which meets their gaze, as one of the prettiest and most beautiful scenes along the river's bank will present itself.

A special committee of Rotarians were appointed by that club to look after this work. The Rotary Club will purchase the ground at a price of $1,000 and will spend another $1,000 on putting it into shape. After this has been done the Port Hope Board of Parks Management will be responsible for the upkeep of the grounds.

The following is the report of the special committee to the Rotary Club:—

Port Hope, November 20, 1925

President Bert,
and Members of the Rotary Club

Your Special Committee appointed to look into the feasibility of improving Queen and Mill streets by the purchase of the McCarthy property, were very much impressed with the great possibilities of this project and readily saw what a beauty spot could be made out of the present eyesore.

We have taken levels and find that the cheapest and at the same time, most effective plan would be to level the present banks so as to have a slope up from the present curb on Mill street to a point in the bank, two feet above the curb and then to slope downwards toward the river building a dry wall as a retaining wall some few feet from the edge of the river. The large boulders etc. in the bank to be used for the retaining wall and the earth to be used for filling. The same will apply to the Queen street side. In regard to the old mill, nothing definite has been decided but it has been suggested that ivy be planted around the wall, inside of the building cleaned out and a roof placed over the buildings above the lower windows. A rustic foot bridge crossing the river at Needham street has also been considered. Working with the object as outlined your committee has received a tender of $550 for the excavation and wall to be built with what material we can get from the embankment, and your committee have obtained an option on all the property belonging to the H. B. McCarthy Company on Queen and Mill streets except that portion lying between Peter street and the Flume on Queen street. Further we have met the Park Board and placed the following proposition before them, "That the Rotary Club should purchase the McCarthy property, the Deeds made out to the Town Council and that we, the Rotary Club should expend $2,000 on the property, this sum to include the purchase price." The Park Board were very enthusiastic over the project and passed unanimously the following motion:—

That this Board, having heard the proposition of a Committee of the Rotary Club, of Port Hope, to purchase the land between Mill and Queen streets, south of Needham street and she had nothing to say regarding Constable Harvey's evidence.

Marion Daniels aged 18, of Cobourg charged as a vagrant, stated that she didn't know she was guilty of anything. She also admitted that she had spent two nights in the Trenton police station along with Pearl Roberts. She was found guilty.

Pearl Roberts of Cobourg aged 18, was charged with the same offence. She said that she had done 6 months in the Mercer Reformatory and was released last January. Her story was similar to the other two girls.

Magistrate Campbell found all three guilty and sentenced Pearl Roberts to 6 months at the Mercer Reformatory, Mrs. Cuff to a fine of $20 and Marion Daniels to $10. In the case of the latter two, in default of payment to be sentenced to one month at the Cobourg jail.

GIRLS CHARGED WITH VAGRANCY

Cobourg Girl Gets 6 Months Arrested Here Sunday Morning

Muriel Daniels or Mrs Cuff, Marion Daniels and Pearl Roberts appeared before Magistrate Campbell at Police Court this morning to answer a charge of vagrancy. The girls were found at a room in the St. Lawrence building at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, in which they had no business.

Muriel Daniels whose married name is Mrs Cuff, stated that she did not know where her husband was, and admitted that she had no business to be at the room at the St. Lawrence, Sunday morning. She stated that she was boarding with Mrs. Sedgwick the lady who occupied the rooms, and pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Night Constable Harvey in giving his evidence, stated that about 2.20 on Sunday morning, somebody telephoned him and said that things were not what they should be at No 4 St. Lawrence Building. Constable Harvey said that he immediately went to the room in question and found the door locked. He knocked, and the door was opened by a man named Welsh. On entering the room the Constable found the three girls, attired in night-gowns, and all in one bed.

Muriel Daniels told him that she was visiting her sister at Mrs Sedgwick's and that's how she accounted for being there.

Muriel Daniels was then called, but

The large wolf shot by Mr. E. Hewit is on display in Outram's hardware store.

Much trouble is being caused owing to the fact that employees of the Beaver Construction Co. are alleged to have stolen several hundred bags of cement from that company and sold them to the farmers in the surrounding district for a very small price.

Owing to the fact that Prof. C. P. S. Carmen is leaving Port Hope on Tuesday, for Woodstock where he will assume his new duties as organist of St. Paul's Church there, his duties as scoutmaster of the local troop will be taken up by Mr. Walter J. Moore. Mr. Moore is already a great favorite with the boys and we feel confident that he will make a big success of his undertaking.

Our little lad was asked by his mother what his father said when he sat down at the table. There was company present.

"WINDY" WARE MAKES GOOD IN OPENING GAME

In the opening game in the New Windsor Arena, played between Preston O. H. A. seniors and the Walkerville intermediates, on Friday night, the Preston Riversides came through with an easy win 5-1. More 1,500 fans watched the game.

Ashley evaded the defence first minute of the game, beat Smith with a hard shot from ten feet out. A minute later McKay equalized, but "Windy" Ware sent his side ahead, by some nice solo play, just before the period ended. The second 20 minutes ended with Preston scoring two more goals. Gunner Arnott and Windy Ware registering tallies after some lovely combination play. Ashley scored in the third period.

Although "Windy" is now in senior company, his first game shows that he is going to make good with the Preston puck-chasers. We hope he keeps up the good work.

With the sale of the Pittsburgh Pirates, newly-crowned champions of the world, it is reported that John "Stuffy" McInnis may manage the club next season.

New York has it that Wally Pip, who has been displaced by the young Lou Gehrig, at first for the Yankees, and Aaron Ward, second baseman, will figure in a swap with Cleveland. It is understood the Yanks would like to get Charley Jamieson, regarded by many as the best all-round outfielder in the big show.

Washington Senators, says he has spent $1,000,000 on his club since 1918. Of this sum, $500,000 went for players, according to Griff and $500,000 was applied on improvements on the Washington Park.

George Sargent, national open golf champion of 1909, would like to know the rule on the problem growing out of an occurrence on Sargent's course at Columbus, O. It was a rainy day and the course was soaked. A club member was trying an explosion shot out of a muddy sand trap. Instead of lighting on the green, the ball stuck to the face of the niblick. Undaunted the golfer walked over to the pin and shook the ball into the cup, claiming the hole. Why not?

GOING UP

Balloon jumping is the latest sport in Great Britain. A balloon about the size of a small haystack is attached to the wearer, making him so buoyant that very little exertion will send him many feet in the air, over houses and other obstacles. Care must be taken in jumping, for the merest touch of his foot sends the flier up twice his own height. The balloon folds up into a pack and is easily carried. It is an expensive sport, as helium is used in the bags.

HOPE TOWNSHIP COUNCIL HELD BUSY SESSION ON SATURDAY

First Reading of By-Law Re Statute Labour. Farmers Address Council and Lay Complaints of Bad Roads and the Dog Menace to Sheep

The Reeve, Deputy Reeve and Councilors were on deck at the Council meeting Saturday afternoon, and had rather a busy time. The Council chamber was packed to the doors with interested residents of Hope Township who either wished to address the council, or to back up someone who did.

The first question discussed by the Council was that of a Mr. Sheppard who is an indigent patient at the hospital at Port Hope, and the Council do not feel that they should support him, as there seems to be some questions as to whether he is a resident of Hope township. Reeve Lawson seemed rather perplexed as to what to do in this matter, until Doctor Beatty, (when asked by the Reeve what he thought about it) replied that Sheppard should be put in some hospital or home, but Reeve Lawson added that he should be put in jail as a vagrant.

M. H. O. vs. Reeve

At this juncture the Reeve spotted a bill of Doctor Beatty's, which was lying peacefully on his hook, and he requested to be informed as to what the Council owed him the $12 for.

Mr. Beatty stated that he had made several trips to Sheppard's place and the bill was for that along with medicine which was necessary for the patient.

Reeve Lawson, however, thought this should come under the Doctors supervision as Medical Health Officer of Hope Township, but Dr. Beatty informed the esteemed Reeve that his M.H.O. duties were that of contagious diseases only.

Reeve Lawson—"But you still want your $100 salary for the year, if there were no cases of contagious diseases?"

Doctor Beatty—"I certainly would, I'm kept pretty busy running here and there."

Reeve Lawson—"You may think this is a personal affair, Dr. but it is not. We called a meeting a while ago which you did not attend."

Dr. Beatty—"Well, call another, there's lots of time before the end of the year."

Reeve Lawson—"It's a funny thing I never met you in my travels around the Township and I never saw you making any calls."

Dr. Beatty—"The roads out our way are in poor condition."

Reeve Lawson—"Yes, and they're a lot worse out my way."

Here the Doctor and Reeve had a somewhat wordy battle and words flew thick and fast, the Doctor defending himself against the Reeve's doubtfulness of his duty being performed.

Dr. Beatty—"I threw $50 off my salary last year, and now it is a lot less than most townships are paying their M.H.O. but, he added "our Reeve costs us more."

Reeve Lawson—"Oh, yes, I'm getting a big thing out of it. I pay my own postage and many other small items, and I write more letters in a year than the rest of the Council put together."

Dr. Beatty was apparently getting tired of arguing with the Reeve by this time, so he brought the debate to a close by saying "Well, you can get another doctor if you want to, I'm not worrying."

Roads in Bad Shape.

The question of the roads was next before the Council and Mr. Wm. Forsythe addressed that body about the poor condition of the road west of Paedens over to Clarke Boundary. He stated that the road was impassible and that the ditches were clogged and water was running over the road which made it more or less of a boghole, with swampy ground on each side of the road with no drainage at all. Mr. Forsythe stated that one half mile west from the spot in question. In Clarke Township, a similar road had been fixed and was now in first class condition. He thought it was a shame that Clarke Township should look after their roads and Hope Township let them get into such condition.

In answer to Mr. Forsythe's request Councillor Caldwell stated that he thought a motion for the repair of this road had been put through some time ago and that Councillors Finnie and Ough were appointed a committee to look after it.

Councillor Finnie said that they had looked into the matter, but had been unable to get anyone to do the work.

Mr. John Bamsey asked about repairs to the road in front of his place, and Mr. Fred Inch made a similar request about the road in his part of the Township. The latter stated that it was impossible to travel over them as there were holes a foot or more deep. He stressed the fact that he had reported this to the Council before but they had done nothing.

Dogs Menace Sheep.

Mr. Fred Hawkins had a complaint to make about the dogs menacing and killing his sheep. He said that dogs had killed a number of sheep and he had shot one dog and found the owner of the dead dog, who was quite willing to pay part damages for his sheep but would not pay the full shot.

The Reeve thought that the only way out of that was for the owner of the dead dog, to find the owners of the other four dogs and divide the costs between them. The Reeve did not think that the Council should pay for the sheep in this case.

Reeve Lawson—"It's the same as with four burglars robbing a house, suppose one gets caught and the others escape, he's the one that suffers."

Councillor Caldwell—"Yes, but men can talk and dogs can't."

Mr. Hawkins said he didn't think it was his place to collect the money by scouring the township to find the owner of the other dogs. He thought he had done his part in killing one of the dogs and finding the owner.

Councillor Caldwell moved that Mr. Hawkins be paid $5 bounty for shooting the dog. Carried.

Communications.

A petition as follows was sent to the Council;

We the undersigned, ask for your kind attention to the sadly needed repairing Brown's Line needs; both road and culverts are dangerous to traffic. And to save further inconvenience and expenses to all parties:

Signed;—Robert Holdaway, Elford Goheen, L. J. Andrews, J. Brads bin, Geo. E. Caldwell, Henry Taylor, Henry Goheen, J. Saminis, M. Robinson, Albert Robinson, Harry Brown, Charles Brown, Ira Bebee, G. Dean.

The printing account from the Port Hope Times which was $10.00 was left over for consideration as Councillor Ough remarked that the bill for the same thing last year was only $6.75.

A letter from A. L. Joliffe, Commissioner of the White Star Dominion Line was received, in which, Mr. Joliffe stated they were departing one Stanley Eaves and wife and two children who had come from England to Bowmanville and are now living in Hope Township. Eaves is a victim of epilepsy and suffered from it prior to his emigration to Canada.

S. L. Squire, Deputy Minister of the Department of Public Highways answered a letter sent to him by the Reeve in which, he said, the Highway Dept. would take no responsibility in the repairs of the roads and and it would appear that the Highways Dept. would have no further interest in it, than the 30 per cent, which the Government would recommend on the expenditures made by the municipality on Township roads.

S. J. Arnott, mail-carrier, sent a letter to the Council complaining of the road from Thomas Paedens west to the Clarke Boundary, and a similar letter was sent by Messrs. Thos. Crossley and Sam Archer.

Mrs. W. E. Gray, the school attendance officer wrote the Council stating during the month of October the attendance at the schools was very small as many of the children were kept at home to help with the farm work, but she states, the attendance is picking up now.

Rebate on Taxes

Mr. Herman Peters addressed the Council and asked if they could help him, by giving him a rebate on his taxes, on account of his barn being burned down last spring the loss of which he estimated at $2000. His taxes were $140.00 this year and after a very lengthy discussion the Council decided, and passed a motion that two-thirds of his taxes be refunded to him.

Councillor T. A. Finnie was appointed a committee to see about a rebate at John Anderson's farm.

Read By-Law

The first reading of a by-law took place, authorizing the Council to take a vote to ask the people if they wish to return to the former system of Commuting Statute Labour.

WINTER TRAVEL

The desire to travel is inherent in the great majority of the people, and at this season of the year thousands of Canadians have their winter trip in view. With many the question is "Where to go." The Pacific coast, California, Florida, The Bermudas, The West Indies of the Gulf Coast resorts, all have their individual appeal—it is just a matter of selection.

Take advantage of Canadian National Railways Service—their travel representatives can be of much assistance to you in completing the details of your trip, make your reservations, etc. Nothing adds more to the pleasure of your journey than to have complete advance arrangements.

Agents of the Canadian National are at your service.

Sleeping-Car Porter—Ah did, lady, Ah sho' did. Ah sate "Soben-thirty, na'am an' you sate "Line's busy."

Here and There

Lumber industries of British Columbia are sending spruce to Boston and New York, fir to Florida and Cuba, new markets created within the last few months. Demands from regular fir markets in Great Britain, Asia, Australia and South Africa are reported better than normal.

The demand for Canadian flour is increasing rapidly in the Orient. This year 347,780 barrels of flour were exported from Medicine Hat mostly for the East. Great Britain is Canada's largest customer for wheat flour, having taken 130,000 barrels of the total of 684,698 barrels exported during the month of August.

The Canadian Pacific Rockies are not "shot up" yet. Following a 30-day hunting trip, Mr. and Mrs. Kollock, of Los Angeles, told of deer that walked right up to camp; bears that prowled all around in abundance; rams and mountain sheep in abundance; lakes full of trout caught with every throw of the line.

Despite alleged trade depression and "blue ruin" talk, during the week ending October 31, 1925, 67 new companies were formed with authorized capital of $151,668,000, as compared with 90 companies with $112,614,875 capital the previous week and with 37 companies with $7,568,000 capital, the corresponding week of last year.

During the 96 hours from Monday, November 9, to Thursday, November 12, the Canadian Pacific Railway loaded a car of grain every 56 seconds, the total being 6,150 cars. On Wednesday 1,805 cars were loaded and on Thursday 1,818, while the record for the year and for many years past was reached on Friday, November 13, when 1,994 cars were loaded.

Involving the use of 3 1/2 million tons of crushed rock, or about 70,000 carloads, approximately 1,000 miles along the Canadian Pacific Railway, Eastern Lines, have been ballasted with rock to date. Rock ballast is dustless and there is a very great increase in comfort for the passenger. Rock-ballasting also increases the strength of the track and otherwise improves its physical condition as to drainage and other matters.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has announced the offer of three free scholarships to apprentices and other employees enrolled on the permanent staff of the company and under 21 years of age, and to minor sons of employees. The scholarships cover four years tuition in architecture, chemical, civil, mechanical or electrical engineering at McGill University and are subject to competitive examination.

THE GRAY DAYS OF NOVEMBER

The gray days of November, No plaint from me shall win; I shut the fog and mist all out, I shut the fire-drone in; I draw my coat the closer To where its warm glow gleers, and dream in the firelight, Dream back across the years.

No happier days, no better, My lost youth gave to me, With flowers in every meadow And songs from every tree; That was the time of growing; This is the time of rest; Bloom falls, but fruiting follows, And each in turn is best.

God giveth of his glory An ever-changing view; The old things pass forever; He maketh all things new; Life knoweth here no beauty That shall not fade away, Some better things he sendeth, And these are mine today.

Mine is the ripper wisdom That comes with graying hair, Mine is the fuller knowledge Of God's great love and care; Mine is the better vision; Mine is the wider view; And mine the hoarded memories Of friendship kind and true.

Mine is the staidier patience To bear the ills of life; Mine is the sturdier courage To meet the daily strife; Mine is faith serene Than ever youth could know To walk the ways appointed Through sunshine or through snow.

The gray days lead to white days Of peace and silence deep, A stiller hush of resting When Earth and I shall sleep; And then—a glorious waking When broken ties all mend; Through gray days of November I wait the long year's end. —Annie Johnson Flint.

COWS FOR THE SETTLER

THE ONTARIO GOVERNMENT IS HELPING NORTHERN FARMERS

The Northland Produces Much Hay—It Is Best Sold on the Hoof or in Milk—Settlers May Purchase Cattle Cheaply—Wireworm Poison.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

Few people in Old Ontario who have not travelled through the northern part of the province realize that there is a territory lying north of New Liskeard and west of Cochrane that will in the near future become one of the most important producing agricultural areas of the province. The country adjacent to the railways is now cleared or being cleared to such an extent that the settlers are no longer dependent upon their timber or pulp wood for revenue, but are now engaged in farming proper. Many farms, especially in the New Liskeard section, are entirely cleared of bush and the whole acreage is either under cultivation or in hay and pasture.

Northland Produces Much Hay.
With the wonderful producing power of this new land there is an exceptionally rapid growth of vegetation and hay is now being produced in such quantities that it is with difficulty that a market can be found for the entire production. So much is this so that even this year in June, stacks of 1924 hay may be seen as one travels along the railway. Settlers have not been producing hay alone, but have been getting into live stock raising as rapidly as circumstances and conditions would permit. This is evidenced by the fact that between New Liskeard and Cochrane there are creameries at the following points: New Liskeard, Ramore, Earlton, Matheson, Val Gagne and Cochrane.

Ready Money Scarce With Settlers.
As was the case with settlers in Old Ontario so it is in most cases with settlers in Northern Ontario—they have very little ready cash as their earnings have been used in clearing the land consequently the Ontario Government is assisting the settlers financially in the building of creameries and in the purchase of cows. Such assistance is being given on business principles only, that is, the money for the building of creameries and the purchase of cows is being loaned to the settlers at a moderate rate of interest and under certain conditions.

Purchase of Cows.
Briefly speaking, the new policy of the Department of Lands and Forests, through the Northern Development Branch, in co-operation with the Department of Agriculture through the Live Stock Branch, is as follows:—
Cattle are to be purchased in car-load lots only.
Settlers are to appoint a Representative to select the animals, and are to authorize him to act on their behalf in such selection and in deciding as to price.
Settlers are required to sign an application form to this effect agreeing to give promissory notes and liens against their farms for unpaid balances.
Government will appoint a representative of the Department of Agriculture to accompany settlers' representative and assist him in selection of cattle.
Government will advance full amount of money to pay for cattle at time of purchase and to prepay transportation charges and to pay expenses of settlers' representative.
Settlers will be charged $12 per cow to defray the transportation charges and the cost of their own representative. This flat rate will mean a saving of several dollars per cow to the settlers, and will give them the advantage of knowing exactly what these costs will amount to.
The total cost to the settler will be the amount paid for the stock purchased for him plus $12 per head for those other charges.
Upon delivery the settlers will be required to pay at least 25 per cent. of this total cost and as much more as he is able.
Interest at 5 per cent. will be charged on unpaid balances and repayments are required at the rate of $2 per cow per month, and the settler shall give a promissory note to this effect and a lien against his farm.
Repayments may be made to the creamery or to such other local office as may be designated in the community.—L. E. O'Neill, Live Stock Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Cur-Worm Poison.
Bran, 25 lb.
Paris Green or White Arsenic, 1 lb.
Molasses, 2 gal.
Water, 2 gal.
Mix the bran and poison together in a large vessel. Add the molasses to water. Stir well and pour the liquid over the poison bran and mix until every part is moist and all fall through the fingers. Apply with a teaspoonful near each plant at dusk and see that chickens keep away.—Dept. of Extension, O. A. College, Guelph.

Sweet Clover Hay.
A recent press bulletin from the Federal Department of Agriculture states that where any other suitable crop can be grown it is best not to use sweet clover for hay. As it is a yellow stemmed, coarse growing plant, it is rather hard to cure sweet clover properly. It must be cut at the right moment, which is usually during the rainy period of early summer. As a silage or pasture crop, however, sweet clover is one of our most valuable plants, while few legumes exceed it as a soil builder.

TWO DOORS TO MAN'S MIND

Explaining Why All of Us Cannot Awaken From Sleep to Instant Action.

Some of us wake up instantly, but most of us have to lie for some time before we are really awake. How quickly can you wake up?

It has nothing to do with being a hero or a strong man, neither has it anything to do with laziness or being tired the night before.

It all depends on our minds. Every one of us has got two distinct minds, the front mind with which we do our ordinary daytime thinking, and the back mind which comes into action only in the hours of sleep.

Between the two minds lies a door. When you go to sleep you pass into your night mind, when you wake up you step through the door into your day mind, and close the door behind you.

But with a great many of us this door between our two minds has worked a little loose.

The hinges of that door work slowly; it doesn't slam, and through it float out the broken remnants of your dream in hopeless confusion with the real life of the new day's work.

Then gradually, with an effort, you manage to pull yourself out of the fog and push the dream things back through the door. Then at last you are awake.

This difficulty of waking varies with your circumstances. If something pleasant is going to happen to you in the coming day you can wake up comparatively easily. Your real self is anxious to be finished with the dream world, to shut the door, and to wake to your good fortune.

But when you are troubled, or expecting worry, your dream self invests your sleeping hours with a kindly mantle of romance to make up for the worries of the day. You are loth to leave that pleasant land of dreams, and consequently wake up slowly.

Coffee Taste Improves.
Americans are becoming coffee connoisseurs. Coffee is no longer just coffee. It must now have bouquet, body and sufficient kick to satisfy those who like it strong. Or the heavy body and the caffeine content must be all but missing, while the aroma remains high and fine, for those who like it weak.

So sophisticated is the taste of the United States becoming, says the New York Sun, that cheap coffee is wanted less than ever before, and high-grade coffee that was previously sent to Europe is reaching our ports at an unprecedented rate.

There has been nothing less than a real revolution in the notion of the public as to what good coffee is. As a result coffee beans are sorted more carefully than ever before, and mild coffees with a high clear flavor are being increasingly shipped North.

Most of the mild coffees of the trade come from the countries of the Gulf Coast, especially Colombia and Venezuela. A considerable quantity reaches us from Mexico.

Authorities credit the roasters and the distributors with much of the responsibility for changing the taste of the public. Stale coffee beans are now rarely sold, and the general public has a chance to know what fresh coffee tastes like. This was not so a generation ago.

Airplane Landing.
A recent invention permits the conventional landing gear with rubber-tired wheels to be dropped from a plane in flight, the subsequent landing being effected with a pair of skids mounted beneath the plane, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The object is to eliminate the weight and wind resistance of the usual landing gear and to make possible landing in a short space and on rough ground. Landing on water is safer with skids than with the wheels, because of the lowered center of gravity, which reduces the tendency to turn the machine over on its end, the arrangement of shock absorbers, some of which are double-acting, interposed between the skids and the body of the plane, is one of the most important features. In this design the propeller blades must be horizontal when making a landing.

Britain's Shipbuilding.
Shipbuilding at cost is said to be the basis on which the British yards are willing to work, in order to get orders. British owners of vessels, however, apparently do not find the offer so attractive as it sounds, for they declare that before they can place many orders for new steamers the cost of building must come down by 80 per cent. Seventy-five per cent of England's shipbuilding capacity is idle. Prospects seem to be brightening, however, for it is reported that inquiries which precede contracts for new boats are increasing.—The Nation's Business.

Tribute to "King Woman."
Jane heard her brother say Columbus discovered America and that he had been assisted by Queen Isabella. Later in the evening, she meant to tell her father all about what brother had said but, not being able to remember all the words, she told him that the King Woman had been good to Columbus.

Jean "Made Good."
Jean passed her plate with a most respectful request at a time when the relative politeness of son and daughter had been the table discussion. "Don't you hear me polluting, daddy?" she asked.

SIDE NOT SHOWN TO PUBLIC

Grover Cleveland's Talent as Mimic Known to Few Who Admired His Recognized Statecraft.

While I am reminiscing about my relations with Mr. Cleveland, I will jump ahead about ten years and speak of a visit he paid me for three days during March, 1903.

He was to deliver an address at the Henry Ward Beecher memorial meeting in the Brooklyn Academy of Music on Sunday evening, and he arrived from Princeton on Saturday. He was like a boy out of school.

We were going to the theater on Saturday evening, and I suggested Justin McCarthy's "If I Were King," played by Sothern.

"I hope it is not sad," he said. "I want to see it from start to finish," and, with a smirk, he added: "For I am a hayseed." I discerned afterward that he would rather have seen a comedy or vaudeville.

When we got to the theater many in the audience recognized him, and heads were constantly turning in the direction of our box. I mentioned it to him, but he said:

"Oh, no; they don't know me any more."

After the theater we had a supper of delicatessen and beer at home, which I knew he would like, and he amused us with several funny stories and mimicry. My wife remarked that he might have made a success on the stage, and he replied that his friend Joe Jefferson had often deplored his having missed that profession.

He mimicked the humorous Congressman Campbell of New York, who used to come to the White House, and pointing to the room occupied by Cleveland, asked the clerk, "Is his royal nibs in?" And sometimes Tim Campbell made requests that Cleveland had to deny as unconstitutional; then Tim would come back with: "Oh, I wouldn't let the Constitution stand between friends!"—Oscar S. Straus in the Outlook.

No Fatalist.
There have been a good many misconceptions about the Turk, and the prevalent idea that he is a fatalist may be one of them. A Cleveland man whose shoe repairer is a Turk, and both skillful and conscientious, likes to chaff with him now and then. "I suppose you are a fatalist?" he said to him on one occasion. The Turk stopped his hammer. "What is it like?" he slowly asked. "Why, a fatalist is a man who believes that what will be, will be," the customer explained. The hammer strokes began again. "What will be, will be," the Turk repeated.

"Yes," said the caller. "But just suppose you are crossing the street and a big automobile is rushing right at you. What would you do?" "Me jump like sheel," replied the Turk. "You're no fatalist," laughed the caller. "Me just good cobbler," replied the Turk.

All About Brother.
While in college I attended a dinner with a young man of whose dancing and conversational powers I knew nothing. I spent a miserable evening, for he was a disappointment in every way.

After a party the girls at our sorority house always gathered in one room to discuss the evening.

When I came into the room the first question asked me was, "Well, did you have a good time?"

I sank wearily into a chair and said, "Girls, there was only one man at that party worse looking—worse in every way than my date—Randall Depew."

Absolute silence reigned. I looked up to see Randall Depew's sister sitting opposite me. My cheeks still burn when I think of this embarrassing incident.—Exchange.

Playing for Puss.
A playing for cats has been patented by Edith F. Kettle of Melford, Mass. It is a small, short metal cylinder with perforated ends and is meant to contain catnip. The end pieces are merely paper discs easily inserted in ring-shaped openings provided for them. The toy rolls about, and for that reason is attractive. The catnip invites by its smell, and pussy manages, after a while, to claw through one of the paper ends and get at the contents.

Crushing Retort.
"Hello, denier," said the fresh young man with a "toothbrush" mustache and dressed to the minute, "a glass of sweet milk and a piece of lemon pie." "Anything else?" asked the fair but haughty waitress. "A little speed and a snail, if you don't mind." "You've got all the speed you need, and as for a snail, look at yourself in one of them mirrors along the wall. If that don't give you a laugh, you ain't got no sense of humor."

Not a Dues Collector.
Will Vawter was valuing a Brown county scene when one of those outlying friends whose words outstrip knowledge approached him. It must have resembled a bad smear or daub to the o. f. He watched the artist a few moments, and then inquired: "Do you just leave it rough like that or how do you smooth it down?" "Oh," replied Mr. Vawter. "I sandpaper it when I get back to the studio. If I'd leave it that way, you see, it would catch dust."—Indianapolis News.

THE GUIDE STORY

"After the death of the child, I returned to England with the new heir of Melcombe, my own son. There, John, you have the story of my crime," she said, pressing her hands tightly over her eyes, as though to shut out some painful vision. "Now you know how you became master of Melcombe."

All this time John Price had been sitting with his face buried in his hands, giving no sign by word or look that he had heard anything of the hideous confession. Yet not a syllable even had been lost upon him; and when at last the miserable woman ceased speaking he felt that, had it been to save his life, he was powerless to utter a word.

It was not till hours after that the mist which had seemed to come up, obscuring his mind, cleared away sufficiently to allow him to understand what was going on. It was night then, and he was sitting alone in the great deserted drawing room, the solemn grandeur of which made him shudder.

"She is awake again and asking for you, sir," said Martha, coming in hurriedly, and the sight of whose face brought back to him the memory of what had taken place. "Come, sir," she said, "I am afraid she is going fast. Come quickly!"

He got up and followed the old servant in silence to the room in which his mother lay dying.

Her sight seemed to be failing; but at the sound of her son's voice she turned and held out her hand toward him.

"Never do any one a wrong, John," she said, at last, her fingers closing tightly over his hand. "Never wrong any one. The penalty of such things is terrible—terrible!" she added, speaking with difficulty, as she fell back and the once proud, handsome face settled down into the mysterious quiet of death.

"Never wrong anyone. The penalty of such things is terrible—terrible!" Night and day those words of the conscience-stricken woman rang in his ears with horrible significance; and in a fit of black gloom the master of Melcombe shut himself in the library and denied himself to every one except his lawyer.

"Wrong no one!" he repeated to himself forty times a day. "Too late—too late!"

It was not too late to repair the wrong he had done. But could he do it?

Could he suffer the woman on whom he had fixed his fierce, pitiless love to be happy with his rival? Never! "But the penalty of such things is terrible!" went on the voice of conscience; but still it was powerless to shake his purpose.

There was a grand funeral at Melcombe; but, like the life of the dead woman, it was all outward pomp and show; for beyond her son—whose merely dazed feeling could hardly be called grief as he followed the velvet-covered coffin to its last resting place—there was no one to mourn her loss.

CHAPTER XXX
In the hope that the sea breeze might prove effectual in bringing back the color to the white lips and cheeks of Eva Egerton, the Farleys remained for some time in Brighton; but at last, despairing of this, they hastened back to the excitement of London life to try if this would rouse her from the painful apathy that had possessed her ever since the discovery of the intended elopement.

Throw Out The Laugh Line!

It's the song ye sing
And the smile ye wear,
That's making the Sunshine everywhere.

The original necking party: The guillotine.

Give me a sentence using the word
"Toronto."
The actor was late for his cue, and Toronto the stage like mad.
Example of passing the buck:
"Look it up in the dictionary; I'm busy."

Let us at least hope that no great men of this era will be immortalized in bronze balloon trousers.

Correct this sentence—"My husband has a bad cold," she said, "but he never speaks unkindly to me."

Owing to a representation from Orono and Peterboro, the Old-Time Dance was quite a hostile affair the other night. The orchestra played, "Oh, oh, it's a lovely war."

Old Colored Mammy—Ah wants a ticket for Florence.

Ticket Agent (After ten minutes of weary thumbing over railroad guides)
—Where is Florence, madam?
Old Colored Mammy—Settin' over dar on de bench, suh.

Judge—Have you anything to say, prisoner? The prisoner—No, your Honor, I expect what you say'll be plenty.

Brief As Can Be

Doings of the District, Condensed for the Casual Observer.

Can't Drive For Five Years

Magistrate Makins of Stratford, handed out a stiff ruling in the case of Albert Everett, convicted on a charge of criminal negligence. He announced that he would suspend sentence on condition that the defendant did not drive a car for five years.
Should he at any time in that period be caught driving a car he will be brought up and sentenced.

This case arose out of an accident on the Mornington-road some time ago, when Mr. Everett's car collided with one driven by Miss D. Dempsey, smashing the car and injuring the occupants slightly.

Young Girl Abandoned Child

Arrested in Picton, Ont. by a detective of the Toronto police force on a charge of having abandoned a baby, Mary Woodall, 21, was brought back to the city and lodged in the cells. She appeared in the women's court and the police will endeavour to connect her with the abandonment of a newly-born baby at the Union Station at Toronto, on October 19th.

The child which is at present in the infants' home, was born at a local hospital on October 6th last, and the police allege that the girl took a taxicab from the hospital ostensibly to go to Pickering, but instead she went to the station and placed the baby in an empty coach which was standing on the track.

Valentino Defied By Wife

Mrs. Winifred Valentino has no intention of dropping her career to become a home loving, domestic wife, as demanded in the ultimatum of her husband, Rudolph Valentino. She made this clear yesterday on her arrival at New York on the Leviathan from a visit to Paris.

Mrs. Valentino said she was going back to work in the movies within a few days and would make no effort to get in touch with her husband, now in New York.

As the Leviathan came up the bay,
Mrs. Valentino gave reporters her views on modern marriage. She said that she would insist on being allowed to work and have her own career and to live like an American woman.

She also added that if Rudolph wanted to see her, he would have to be the one to make the first appointment. He was not at the pier.

TWO HUNDRED LOSE LICENSES

Ontario Motor Vehicle Laws Being Rigidly Enforced By Permanent Cancellation

An evidence of the drastic enforcement of the Ontario Motor vehicle laws is seen in the number of cancellations for this year in a report issued by the department of public highways. Altogether 206 licenses have been permanently cancelled.

The statement shows 79 permanent cancellations for intoxication, Under the heading of reckless driving 127 cases of permanent cancellation are recorded. Detailed reasons for these are given as unfitness to drive, failure to return after an accident and driving while licenses were suspended.

In addition to the 79 drivers who have their license permanently cancelled for intoxication, 79 others on this score were given suspension of from seven to thirty days and 77 others had sentences imposed at three months. Two other sentences were for one year each. The record includes one cancellation of an Ontario driver while motoring in the state of New York and one Ohio motorist is prohibited from driving in Ontario.

PUNK'N

Golden summer has to go;
Winter comes with sleet and snow;
Let winter come; let summer scold;
Let the north winds howl and hoot—
"Tis now I pile chunk after chunk in
Of Golden punk'n, flavoured punk'n,
Glorious punk'n, punk'n pie.

Russet as the autumn leaves;
Golden as the garnered sheaves;
Bosomed like the bounteous earth;
Here is the proper food for mirth.
Sweet, honest, mellow, there's no bunk-in

Good old punk'n, grandma's punk'n,
Our own punk'n, punk'n pie.
—Thomas Pye.

The gates to the future life are not infrequently railway crossing gates.

THE CONSOLATION OF THE FUTURE

You're bound to come to laughter
If you'll trudge your way along;
Some day your heart will gladden,
To the music of a song.
So keep your faith and brave the pain
And brush away your tears,
You're bound to come to sunshine
And the peace of other years.

Keep walking towards the hilltop, Though just now the road seems steep,
For every heart must suffer grief
And every eye must weep,
But face the distant future
With the courage of your prayer;
You'll walk away from sorrow,
And you'll walk away from care.

What though today be dreary
And the mist is in your eyes,
Somewhere along the future
Shall the sun in splendor rise.
And though this morn you doubt it
As you stumble on in pain,
Keep walking towards your loved ones,
You'll come to them again.

Shop at Home FIRST

Years ago people went into the market place
"to shop." They went, not knowing what they would find, its price or its worth. Weary hours were spent in inspection, in bargaining and buying.

Today manufacturers are bringing the market place to your home. Every time a newspaper comes, a host of people are ringing your door-bell.
Merchants and manufacturers are waiting on the doorstep to spread their goods at your feet for you to look at—to inspect at leisure and in comfort.

Don't let the opportunity that advertisements offer you slip by. No matter what you want, clothing, groceries, a fountain pen or a farm, you will find the "better" ones in the advertising columns.

The advertisements tell you where you can get what you want. They are a guarantee of worth that protects your purchase.
Buying with a definite knowledge is so much better than shopping at random.
